

BUSINESS OF HOME

NEWS DIGEST | SEP 10, 2024 |

Big Lots files for Chapter 11, how paint companies name colors and more

By Caroline Bourque

This week in design, the newest form of romantic overture among the über wealthy is commissioning art depicting your spouse. Stay in the know with our weekly roundup of headlines, launches, events, recommended reading and more.

SHOWHOUSES

Real Simple has announced the debut of its seventh annual showhouse, taking place this year in a vintage brownstone located in Brooklyn's Crown Heights neighborhood. This year, 13 designers were selected to reimagine the space—a cohort that includes Amber Guyton, Hema Persad, Mikel Welch, and duo Barry Bordelon and Jordan Slocum. The showhouse will be open to the public for tours from September 12 to September 15.

The Kips Bay Decorator Show House Dallas has announced the list of designers and architects who will be participating in this year's event, located on a two-acre estate in the city's Turtle Creek enclave. The space will be reimaged by 25 designers, including Jan Showers, Ashley Ross, Kate Figler, Lisa Henderson and Victoria Sass, among others. It will be open to the public from October 25 through November 13, and proceeds from the showhouse will benefit Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club, along with local Dallas charities Dwell with Dignity and the Crystal Charity Ball.