The Kips Bay Decorator Show House has tapped 25 designers and architects for its fifth-annual showhouse in Dallas.

Chad Dorsey and Jean Liu are the chairs of the showhouse, with Trish Sheats and Laura Lee Falconer serving as vice chairs and Javier Burkle, Mike Yates and Bryan Yates serving as alumni chairs.

"Each of our twenty-five designers were hand selected for their distinctive flair and creativity, and we look forward to unveiling their creations at this year's iconic Dallas location," said Daniel Quintero, the executive director of the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club.

For this event, the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club partnered with design-led real estate developer and asset manager HN Capital Partners to find the home, located at 2999 Turtle Creek Boulevard.

"Historically, the Kips Bay Decorator Show House is where the design community comes together to showcase the best and brightest new ideas in high design homes," said Vipin Namblar, founder and managing partner of HN Capital Partners. "We believe that 2999 Turtle Creek is an iconic structure, which will provide a fitting canvas for the best American designers to bring their most inspired ideas to life. We are also passionate about infusing excellence in design sensibility into the development work being undertaken in Dallas, and these exhibitions and the great collaborators in the Dallas Design District, are making this happen every day."

Open to the public for three weeks beginning October 25, the show house will raise funds for Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club, as well as local Dallas charities Dwell with Dignity and The Crystal Charity Ball.

Prior to the show house's opening, the Annual Kips Bay President's Dinner will take place on October 23, bringing together leaders in the design industry and supporters of the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club. This year, for the first time, President's Dinner attendees will be able to enjoy a private preview of the Kips Bay Decorator Show House Dallas to begin the evening. The reception will be followed by a seated dinner on the tented lawn at the Mansion on Turtle Creek.
